SDA's Dana Suggitt named Member of the Year by Michigan Women's Transportation Seminar

Detroit, MI (January 12, 2007) – Spalding DeDecker Associates' Dana Suggitt was named the Member of the Year by the Women's Transportation Seminar (WTS) Michigan Chapter. Suggitt, an engineer specializing in transportation and land development, has been a very active member of WTS serving as co-chair for the organization's newsletter and their Hospitality chairperson. Suggitt has been on the WTS-Michigan Board as a Director-at-Large since January, 2006.

"Dana is always willing to help wherever needed and consistently follows up with her commitments," said Susan Dickinson, Mid-western Consulting, LLC. And president, WTS Michigan Chapter, who nominated Suggitt for the award. "She deserves to be recognized for the excellent work she has done for this organization."

The Women's Transportation Seminar (WTS) is an international organization with 39 chapters throughout the United States, Canada and Great Britain. The organization's primary goal is to serve as a forum to involve and engage women and men of diverse backgrounds to grow and advance in the transportation industry. WTS Michigan strives to increase knowledge and awareness of local, state and national transportation issues throughout the State of Michigan.

Established in 1954, Spalding DeDecker Associates, Inc. is an engineering consulting firm specializing in infrastructure, land development and surveying. With offices in Detroit, Rochester Hills and Trenton, Michigan, SDA is an employee owned and ISO certified organization that provides design and engineering solutions for municipal, land development, transportation and water/wastewater projects.
